On 11/11/44, the Soviet Union announced that it had captured the German capital, Berlin. This was a major victory for the Soviet Union and a significant blow to the German war effort. The German High Command was in a state of panic and was trying to organize a last-ditch defense of the city. The Soviet Union was determined to capture Berlin and was willing to sacrifice thousands of lives to do so. The German forces were overwhelmed and the city was captured by the Soviet Union on 23/4/45. The Soviet Union was determined to capture Berlin and was willing to sacrifice thousands of lives to do so. The German forces were overwhelmed and the city was captured by the Soviet Union on 23/4/45.

10. Further information in connection with this case was obtained from the Bureau of the U.S. Customs Service, which has advised that the children were captured by the Germans during the occupation of Danzig.

16. According to ~~Just KALTENBRUNNER~~, AUNER was the liaison officer of the Iron Guard and KINIU was personally in touch with the Iron Guard through AUNER. KALTENBRUNNER also stated that AUNER had once been in Austrian territory and was also a prisoner in the Reich after the Iron Guard putsch. He can find no information in Karl files to confirm or refute this allegation.

17. AUNER, with ~~Re. TH~~, surrendered to CIC Kirchdorf and sent to Freysing Interrogation Center. He was involved with KINIU in the Coo-proposed operation Mount (within cover of HOSCHKE's German network). His was disapproved by USPT and ~~Re. TH~~ was returned to the Interrogation Center for formal questioning. He was later interned in Camp Lewis, W. Va., Salzburg.

18. According to ~~Re. TH~~, in mid-1943, ~~Re. TH~~ was brought to Freysing, planted as a representative of German or Italian in Romania. At the same time he belonged to the office of ~~Re. TH~~, a former officer of the Waffen SS for German nationals. According to ~~Re. TH~~, ~~Re. TH~~ was a member of the Landvolk German minority organization in Buchenwald, headed by ~~Re. TH~~.

19. ~~Re. TH~~ of the CIC files of ~~Re. TH~~ and subject revealed that ~~Re. TH~~ was concerned primarily with the planning of political and economic matters, though he did visit ~~Re. TH~~ and other types of activities.

20. ~~Re. TH~~ of the CIC files of ~~Re. TH~~, in mid-1943, reported that ~~Re. TH~~ was in Salzburg, Austria, in mid-1943. In Salzburg, he was in contact with ~~Re. TH~~ and was in contact with ~~Re. TH~~ for the Americans under the direction of ~~Re. TH~~ and von ~~Re. TH~~. ~~Re. TH~~ was named in the group was ~~Re. TH~~.

21. Other information in Karlsruhe files confirms the data given above. In mid-1943, ~~Re. TH~~ files contains the same information as that given in Karlsruhe ~~Re. TH~~, negative, above.

22. CIC files contain the same information as given above with the following additional reports:

a. CIC, Headquarters CIC Region IV, 970th CIC Detachment, subject: French intelligence agents in U.S. zones of Austria and Germany, dated 13 December 1947, evaluated D-3, states: "AUNER (AUNER), fnu, address SALZBURG, Sigmundhofnerstrasse 1, is a former Sturmbannfuhrer of the SD. During the war subject was liaison officer between the Reichsicherheitamt and the Roumanian IC. Subject is presently alleged to be working for an American intelligence agency in SALZBURG. At the end of October, subject met the chief agent runner of the French ~~Re. TH~~. Subject is suspected of working now for French intelligence ~~Re. TH~~ as he was introduced to Captain ~~Re. TH~~ (allegedly running an agent network for the French in Austria) by COMALVEY."

b. Another CIC report, dated 10 November 1948, evaluated D-3, states substantially as follows: "An fnu AUNER, a former Sturmbannfuhrer of the SD, presently living on Sigmundhofnerstrasse, SALZBURG, is an important employee of an American intelligence agency or service operating in SALZBURG. AUNER is a 'go between' for the ~~Re. TH~~ and the Roumanian. During the last
